

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1	INTRODUCTION.....	1
1.1	BACKGROUND.....	1
1.2	THE ROLE OF PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN THE EA DECISION-MAKING PROCESS	1
1.3	PURPOSE OF THIS LEGAL GUIDE.....	1
1.4	FORMAT OF THE GUIDELINE.....	1
1.5	INTERNATIONAL AND REGIONAL TREATIES	2
1.5.1	International Conventions	2
1.5.2	Regional Conventions	3
1.5.3	Soft law instruments	5
1.6	DISTINCTION BETWEEN CIVIL AND COMMON LAW JURIS-DICTIONS	6
1.7	THE RELEVANCE OF AFRICAN CUSTOMARY LAW	7
1.8	THE RELEVANCE OF COMMON LAW	8
1.9	LIMITATIONS OF THE GUIDE	10
2	COUNTRY BY COUNTRY ANALYSIS.....	10
2.1	REPUBLIC OF ANGOLA	10
2.1.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	10
2.1.2	Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	11
2.1.3	In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?	11
2.1.4	Does the legal framework provide for rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?	11
2.1.5	What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process? ¹²
2.1.6	Consideration of ancillary rights and opportunities for participating in environmental assessment decision-making	12
2.2	REPUBLIC OF BOTSWANA.....	13
2.2.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	13
2.3	DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC OF CONGO	14
2.3.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	14
2.3.2	Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	15
2.3.3	In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?	15
2.3.4	Does the legal framework provide for rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?	15
2.4	KINGDOM OF LESOTHO	16
2.4.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	16
2.4.2	Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	16
2.4.3	In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?	17
2.4.4	Does the legal framework provide for rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?	17
2.4.5	What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process? ¹⁸
2.4.6	Is customary law recognised?	19
2.4.7	Is the land under customary tenure?	19
2.4.8	Does common law provide additional rights of public participation in the decision-making process?	19
2.5	REPUBLIC OF MALAWI	19
2.5.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	19
2.5.2	Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	20
2.5.3	In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?	21
2.5.4	Does the legal framework provide for rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?	21
2.5.5	What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process? ²³
2.5.6	Consideration of ancillary rights and opportunities for participating for environmental

assessment decision-making	24
2.5.7 Is customary law recognised?.....	25
2.5.8 Does common law provide additional rights of public participation in the decision-making process?.....	25
2.6 REPUBLIC OF MAURITIUS.....	25
2.6.1 Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	25
2.6.2 Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	26
2.6.3 In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?.....	26
2.6.4 Does the legal framework provide rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?.....	26
2.6.5 What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process?27
2.7 REPUBLIC OF MOZAMBIQUE	28
2.7.1 Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	28
2.7.2 Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	29
2.7.3 In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?.....	29
2.7.4 Does the legal framework provide rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?.....	30
2.7.5 Interested and affected persons	30
2.7.6 What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process?31
2.7.7 Consideration of ancillary rights and opportunities for participating for environmental assessment decision-making	32
2.7.8 Is customary law recognised?.....	33
2.7.9 Is land under customary tenure?	33
2.8 REPUBLIC OF NAMIBIA.....	33
2.8.1 Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	33
2.8.2 Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	34
2.8.3 In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?.....	34
2.8.4 Does the legal framework provide rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?.....	34
2.8.5 What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process?36
2.9 REPUBLIC OF SEYCHELLES.....	37
2.9.1 Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	37
2.9.2 Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	37
2.9.3 In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?.....	38
2.9.4 Does the legal framework provide rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?.....	39
2.9.5 What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process?40
2.9.6 Consideration of ancillary rights and opportunities for participating for environmental assessment decision-making	40
2.9.7 Is customary law recognised?.....	41
2.10 REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA	41
2.10.1 Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	41
2.10.2 Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	42
2.10.3 In what circumstances does the legal obligation apply?	42
2.10.4 Does the legal framework provide for rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?.....	42
2.10.5 What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process?43
2.10.6 Consideration of ancillary rights and opportunities for participation in environmental assessment decision-making.	44
2.10.7 Is customary law recognised?.....	44

2.10.8	Is there any land under customary tenure?	44
2.10.9	Does common law provide additional rights of public participation in the decision-making process?	45
2.11	KINGDOM OF SWAZILAND	45
2.11.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	45
2.11.2	Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	45
2.11.3	In what circumstances does the legal obligation apply?	45
2.11.4	Does the legal framework provide for rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?	46
2.11.5	What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process? ⁵⁰
2.11.6	Consideration of ancillary right and opportunity for participating for environmental assessment decision-making	51
2.11.7	Does common law provide additional rights of public participation in the decision-making process?	51
2.12	UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA	51
2.12.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	51
2.12.2	In what circumstances does the legal obligation apply?	52
2.12.3	Does the legal framework provide for rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?	52
2.12.4	Are there rights of appeal in the event of dissatisfaction of the outcome of the decision-making process?	54
2.12.5	Does common law provide additional rights of public participation in the decision-making process?	54
2.13	REPUBLIC OF ZAMBIA	54
2.13.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	54
2.13.2	Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment?	55
2.13.3	In what circumstances does that legal obligation apply?	55
2.13.4	Does the legal framework provide rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?	56
2.13.5	Review process of environmental impact statement	57
2.13.6	General provisions regarding EIA	60
2.13.7	What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental assessment decision-making process? ⁶¹
2.14	REPUBLIC OF ZIMBABWE	61
2.14.1	Brief description of legal framework and applicable laws	61
2.14.2	Is there a legal obligation to undertake environmental assessment and in what circumstances does that obligations apply?	63
2.14.3	Does the legal framework provide for rights and opportunities to participate in the environmental assessment process?	63
2.14.4	What rights and opportunities does the legal framework provide for recourse where a person feels aggrieved by the outcome of the environmental impact assessment decision-making process? ⁶⁴
2.14.5	Consideration of ancillary rights and opportunities for participating in environmental assessment decision-making	65
2.14.6	Is customary law recognised?	65
2.14.7	Is there land under customary tenure?	66
2.14.8	Are rights of appeal safeguarded under common law in the event of dissatisfaction with the outcome of the decision-making process?	66
3	CONCLUSION	66
	ANNEX 1: SCHEDULE OF LISTED ACTIVITIES	1
	ANNEX 2: SUMMARY OF PARTICIPATION PROCESS	1
	ANNEX 3 - MALAWI - DRAFT LETTERS	1